

Data Sharing Statement

Nuytens. Five-Year Survival Outcomes of Hybrid Minimally Invasive Esophagectomy in Esophageal Cancer. JAMA Surg. Published February 17, 2021. doi:10.1001/jamasurg.2020.7081

Data

Data available: Yes

Data types: Other (please specify)

Additional Information: Statistical data analysis

How to access data: Statistical data will be made available with publication, after approval of proposal and after signing a data access agreement. If applicable, data will be made available after contact via the following e-mail address: guillaume.piessen@chru-lille.fr

When available: With publication

Supporting Documents

Document types: None

Additional Information

Who can access the data: Statistical data will be made available with publication, after approval of proposal and after signing a data access agreement. If applicable, data will be made available after contact via the following e-mail address: guillaume.piessen@chru-lille.fr

Types of analyses: Statistical data will be made available with publication, after approval of proposal and after signing a data access agreement. If applicable, data will be made available after contact via the following e-mail address: guillaume.piessen@chru-lille.fr

Mechanisms of data availability: Statistical data will be made available with publication, after approval of proposal and after signing a data access agreement. If applicable, data will be made available after contact via the following e-mail address: guillaume.piessen@chru-lille.fr

Any additional restrictions: Statistical data will be made available with publication, after approval of proposal and after signing a data access agreement. If applicable, data will be made available after contact via the following e-mail address: guillaume.piessen@chru-lille.fr